PHOTO	 The photograph shows an aerial view of an industrial site. In the foreground, there is a large, light-colored building with a gabled roof and a sign that reads 'CIMA'. To its left, a tall, dark chimney stands out. The complex consists of several interconnected buildings with dark roofs. In the background, there are rows of trees and a fence line. The ground in the foreground appears to be a dirt or gravel area with some parked vehicles. <small>www.deicampe.net</small>
